CONVERSION. C.M.

"And of his fullness have all we received, and grace for grace." -- John 1:16.

C Major Isaac Watts, 1719.

Supply Belcher, 1794.

1. When God re-vealed His gra-cious name, And changed my mourn-ful state; My rap-ture seemed a
My tongue broke out in

2. The world be-held the glo-r'ous change, And did Thy hand con-fess; My pleas-ing dream, My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great, The grace ap-peared so great. great.

un-known strains, My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great. great.
My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great. great.
tongue broke out in un-known strains, My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great! The grace ap-peared so great. great.
My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.