"A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother." -- Prov. 15:20.

Arr. - E. T. Pound, 1859.

Be kind to thy fa-ther, for when thou wert young, Who loved thee so fond-ly as he? He caught the first ac-cent that fell from thy tongue, And joined in thy in-no-cent glee. Be kind to thy fa-ther, For now he is old, his locks in-ter-min-gled with grey; His foot-steps are fee-ble, Once fear-less and bold, Thy fa-ther is pass-ing a-way.
