1. Our Fa - ther's gone to that bright land, He dwells with Christ, the King; And with the saints of old doth stand, While all the an - gels sing.
 2. A - round dear Moth - er's bed we stood And watched her dy - ing face; While Je - sus bade her spir - it come And take a heav'n - ly place.

3. Their forms on earth no more we see, They're hid - den from our view; Their mem -'ries lin - ger still with me, As no - ble, good and true.
 4. Could we but stand and view that goal, 'Twould dry our brin - y tears; True love and joy there to be - hold, Would ban - ish all our fears.
