G Major Anne Steele, 1760.

E. Foy Frederick, 1959.

Look up, my soul, with cheerful eyes, See where the great Redeemer lives, See where the great Redeemer lives, I'll
I'll build an altar

Look up, my soul, with cheerful eyes, See where the great Redeemer lives, See where the great Redeemer lives, I'll
I'll build an altar

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are for the vocal line, and the bottom two are for the piano accompaniment. The music is in G major and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "Look up, my soul, with cheerful eyes, See where the great Redeemer lives, See where the great Redeemer lives, I'll I'll build an altar".

build an altar to His name, I'll build an altar to His name And to the world proclaim His grace, And to the world proclaim His grace. grace.
to His name, I'll build an altar to His name And to the world proclaim His grace, build an altar to His name, And to the world proclaim His grace. grace.
to His name

The second system of the musical score continues the piece. It also consists of four staves. The lyrics are: "build an altar to His name, I'll build an altar to His name And to the world proclaim His grace, And to the world proclaim His grace. grace. to His name, I'll build an altar to His name And to the world proclaim His grace, build an altar to His name, And to the world proclaim His grace. grace. to His name".
